Anthony Aylor

What little I know about him

This is all the information I have collected so far on the mysterious Anthony (Anton) Aylor of Rockingham County, VA, ca. 1750. If anyone can add to this please let me know and I will update it. From the info below it seems the family split, with some moving to Georgia and others to Ohio then on to Nebraska. Thanks to all thc folks who have already contributed to this project!

I believe that Anthony is related to the Aylors from Germanna, but I cannot find any direct evidence of this. It is known that Henry Aylor of Germanna owned property in Rockingham County. If you can tie Anthony to the Germanna Aylors, PLEASE EMAIL ME.

Download a GEDCOM file containing the entire Anthony Aylor line (32k)

You can also download a GEDCOM file containing the family info for Peter Eiler (18k) which is not as complete, but its all we know about him.

If you can contribute to either of these files, please send me an email.

source: Mirl Orebaugh [mostly] except #5, from Terry Graham, see below: Mirl Orebaugh is the author of a book titled "The Descendants of Andreas Oberbeck and Elizabeth Drach," which contains references to numerous Aylors (I have a copy of the index but was unable to get a copy of the book. I tried both ILL and the LDS). I will attempt another try at getting a copy from the LDS.

Terry Graham (tgraham@magnus.acs.ohio-state.edu) wrote:
"David and Margaret moved to Madison Co, OH prior to 5/4/1844." "... Upon the death of Margaret's father, George AYLER, Margaret and "her bothers and sisters" sold the deed on a three-acre tract of land in Madison Co., OH which had belonged to their father. I do not know if George AYLER actually lived in OH or simply possessed some land here. [...] After moving to OH, David [Link] and Margaret were "lost" to the LINK family ("whereabouts unknown"). We since have discovered that David and Margaret settled in Cincinatti. David is my mother's great grandfather. In our family, we jokingly call him "the missing LINK".
[END of Terry's comments]

Note the Madison County named here is in Ohio. That's the next county over from me but I haven't yet looked into the records there to see what I can find. The land was sold to Martin Orebaugh [Oarbaugh, Yarborough], Margaret's brother-in-law.

I have another "cousin" descended from these folks who had ancestors who married in Madison (or Union) County, Ohio. He states that John Michael Aylor b. 13 Oct 1828 Augusta Co. VA d Dec 1914 married in 1850 Madison Co. Ohio, Eleanor Knipe Norris (b. 20 June 1832 d. Feb 1914).

I do have a record of this marriage from the IGI only it says Union County (nearby). I am not sure who John Michael Aylor is or how he is related to this family. He could be John George Aylor's child #6 from above, but the dates are a little far apart. John Michael, according to my cousin, had a brother Abner and a sister Hannah, and the 3 were children of a William Michael Aylor and Elizabeth Knipe Aylor. Elizabeth was allegedly born in Harrison Co. Ohio. He didn't give me a date for their marriage, and he says that Wm Michael was born in Madison Co VA. I am skeptical about this last link.

NOTE: Since the above was written, new evidence has surfaced that seems to indicate John Michael Aylor was the son of John Aylor (#6 above). Evidently John #6 married a woman named Charlotte and moved to Ohio.

Dorothy Boyd-Rush once wrote:

"I'm still at a dead end with Peter EILER Junior (1766-1841 - died in Rockingham) married Elizabeth 32121

According to the VIRGINIA VALLEY RECORDS by John Wayland, John and Henry Aylor were landowners in Rockingham Co in 1789. (Henry, I think, is from Germanna). Also, a Peter Eiler owned a large tract in 1755. We have since determined that the Peter Eiler [Oehler] named in the beginning of Germanna Record #12 (Aylor-Tanner-Snyder) was not the husband of Anna Magdalena Snyder as Mrs. Lewis had originally thought, so I don't know if Peter Eiler is related or not.

Evidently the Peaked Mountain Church changed its name to the Upper Massanutten Church at some point.

The following information was extracted from the above named book. I tried to get anyone whose name even remotely resembled Aylor.

A History of Rockingham County VA, also by John Wayland, page 60, lists Anthony Aler, William Oler, Henry Oler, and John Oler, but I cut off the previous page and am not sure what this list is referring to.

On pages 61 & 62 is an agreement between the Reformed and Lutheran Congregations for use of the Peaked Mountain Church signed 31 Oct 1769. Among the signers: Anthony Oehler, Henry Kohler, John Reisch(), George Zimmerman (), Peter Euler, Jacob Risch(), and Martin Schneider().

(*) names included because I thought they sounded like they could be Germanna descendants (Risch = Rouse?)

Note this book was not as well indexed as its successor (Valley Records) and I found these names by leafing through the book, so I may have easily missed some.

Wayland states that "The most complete and best preserved records are perhaps those found in the Peaked Mountain Church. Parts of these records were translated and published in 1905, by WJ Hinke and CE Kemper, in the Wm. & Mary College Quarterly." I would be very interested to see what that material says. I have read Hinke & Kemper's work before, in the VA Magazine of History and Biography from about 1904 and it is excellent.

Below is a list of Germans who arrived in America.

One final book, the Wuerttemberg Emigration Index, lists several Oehlers, almost all from the same area in Germany where "my" Aylors came from (towns: Botenheim, Cleebronn, Haefnerhaslach), but no Anthony's. In fact, all of them listed in this index left between the years 1831 & 1866, which eliminates any who were in America during the timeframe I am looking at. However, there is a high probability that they are all related. It might be interesting to try to piece together exactly how, but I would need German records for all the years between 1720 and 1830, and I don't see that happening. Plus, the destinations are mostly listed as "N. Amer."

Lee Hay (LEEHAY338@AOL.COM) wrote the following 4/1996:

The line I am tracking is the Hammons line and accidentally ran into the Aylors. These are the same Aylors that you are tracking. This is how I connect:

32699 46425

Barbara Anne (you have her as Anna Barbara) was married to John Hammons Jr. before they arrived in Wilkes County, Ga. around 1790. (These are my direct ancestors.)

43807

Her brother John Aylor (b. 1757) married John Hammons sister, Mary Hammons. I still can't find if they were married in Wilkes County or before.

F - 46427
M - 46428

I did find that John Hammons father, John Sr. had lived in Rockingham Co., Va. (once Augusta Co.) with the Aylors for some time before they went to Wilkes Co., Ga. I don't know if you know it, but Philip Zimmerman along with his father, Barnhardt moved to and lived in Wilkes Co., Ga. too. Philip Zimmerman was also executor of Anthony's will. It was recorded in Wilkes Co., Ga. I did find that on one of my trips.

The thing that was most interesting is that you find the Aylors on the ship Edinburgh and I have tracked the Hammons back to the Edinburgh to Johann Jacob Hammon. Is that name on the list? If it is, then I

You didn't mention it, but there is also documentation on Anna Catherine (I have it as Elizabeth) Smith's father as being Henry Smith (also a name from Germanna).

1 NOTE John Blankenbaker of Beyond Germanna provided the following information:
1 NOTE Back in Virginia, Susanna Aylor [my #508] was confirmed at the Hebron Church
2 CONT Easter Sunday 1776. Since a very typical age for girls to be confirmed was
2 CONT about 16, this would place her birth about 1760. Probably she is the
2 CONT daughter of the immigrant, Henry, and probably one of the younger children
2 CONT in the family. One wonders if she didn't have a brother Peter since Peter
2 CONT Oler and wife Mary were communicants on Christmas 1775. This Peter is not
2 CONT listed in the family histories but he may have left heirs...
